DAVIE-YADKIN COUNTY BOUNDARY LINE
SUMMARY OF RESEARCH FINDINGS March 2020

HISTORY

Davie County was formed in 1836 from Rowan County

Davie County was formed from Rowan County in 1836. From page 88 and 89 of David Leroy Corbitt's book "The Formation of the North Carolina Counties 1663-1943" reads, beginning at the junction of the North and South Yadkin rivers; thence up the South Yadkin river, to the Iredell county line; and all that part of the present county of Rowan, lying and being north of said river, shall hereafter constitute a separate and distinct county, to be called and known by the name of Davie, in honor of the revolutionary patriot, William R. Davie. (Laws, 1836-37, Chs. 4, 5; Private Laws 1839, Ch. 66; Manual, 1913, p. 590; Battle, p.27); (Laws, 1836-37, Ch. 4)

Yadkin County was formed in 1850 from Surry County

Yadkin County was formed from Surry County in 1850. From page 238 and 239 of David Leroy Corbitt's book "The Formation of the North Carolina Counties 1663-1943" reads, That a county be, and the same is hereby laid off and established out of that portion of county of Surry, which lies South of the Yadkin river, and also including that portion of the county of Surry known and called by the name of Little Surry, and county to be called Yadkin. (Public Laws, 1850-51, Chs. 40, 41; 1852, Ch. 34; Manual, 1913, p. 857; Battle, p.14)

DISCUSSION

The question of the location of the Davie and Yadkin County boundary line continues today as it did in the years following the formation of Davie County in 1836. This is somewhat due to the lack of an adopted survey and the placement of permanent monuments along the county line. At the corner of Davie, Iredell and Yadkin County a monument was set (labeled Monument # 11) and recorded in all three counties Register of Deeds Office in July of 1999. Then proceeding in a southeasterly direction to an existing two-inch iron pipe near Chinquapin Road at the same location as described in Deed Book 9; Page 236 dated 1916 recorded in Yadkin County as being on the county line. Continuing in a southeasterly direction to an existing one-inch iron pipe near Four Corners Road at the same location as described in Deed Book E; Pages 432-433 dated 1877 as a post oak recorded in Yadkin County as being on the county line. Then proceeding in a southeasterly direction to an existing one and half inch iron pipe east of Farmington Road on the Duke Energy transmission line. Being at the same location as described in Deed Book 10; Pages 290-291 dated 1886 as recorded in Davie County as being a stone on the Davie and Yadkin County Line. Then proceeding in a southeasterly direction to the centerline of the Yadkin River; which will define the tri-county corner of Davie, Forsyth and Yadkin County.

CONCLUSION

The earliest record of a survey of the Davie and Yadkin County boundary line is that of the 1850 description forming Yadkin County from Surry. Although adoption and ratification records of this survey aren't available and water ways have been altered over the years, there is still some evidence of the county lines established. Additionally, the survey has been preserved and historically perpetuated through subsequent property deed descriptions and property surveys illustrated on parcel plats of record examined in this research phase. In conclusion, research of the original county line descriptions, historic maps, land grant descriptions, property deed descriptions, and property survey plats illustrate the best witness to the position of the county boundary line starting at the corner of Davie, Iredell, and Yadkin County at a permanent concrete monument; then in a southeasterly direction to an existing two-inch iron pipe near Chinquapin Road; continuing in that southeasterly direction to an existing one-inch iron pipe near Four Corners Road; proceeding in a southeasterly direction to an one and half inch iron pipe east of Farmington Road on the Duke Energy transmission line; then in a southeasterly direction to the centerline of the Yadkin River also know as the county corner of Davie, Forsyth and Yadkin County to be the blue line illustrated on the preliminary plat titled " THE DAVIE AND YADKIN COUNTY LINE" as attached.

CHAP. IV.

An Act to lay off and establish a county by the name of Davie.

Boundaries and name of county.
Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That a county shall be, and the same is laid off and established, in the territory now comprehended in the limits of Rowan county, north of the South Yadkin river, beginning at the junction of the North and South Yadkin rivers; thence, up the South Yadkin river, to the Iredell county line; and all that part of the present county of Rowan, lying and being north of said river, shall hereafter constitute a separate and distinct county, to be called and known by the name of Davie, in honor of the revolutionary patriot, William R. Davie; and it shall be, and is hereby, invested with all the rights, privileges and immunities of the other counties in this State, except as is hereafter provided.

 SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That all justices of the peace and officers of the militia, who reside within the limits of the county of Davie, shall continue to hold and exercise all the official powers and authorities, in and for the said county, that they have hitherto held and exercised in and for the county of Rowan.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That a Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions shall be, and the same is hereby, established in and for said county of Davie, to be held by the justices last aforesaid and such others as may be hereafter appointed in and for said county, on the fourth Monday of February, May, August and November, in each and every year; the first session of which shall be held on the fourth Monday in February next, in the town of Mocksville; when the court aforesaid, a majority of the justices of said county being present, shall appoint a clerk of said court, a sheriff, a coroner or coroners, constables and other officers for said county, who shall enter into bond as required by law, and shall hold and continue in said offices until successors to them are duly chosen and qualified according to the acts of the General Assembly in such cases provided. And the said court, at its first session aforesaid, may appoint the place of its future sessions, until a court-house shall be erected for said county.

County Courts established.

Appointment of clerk and other officers, &c.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That the County Court of Davie, a majority of the justices being present, shall appoint five commissioners to select and determine upon a scite for a permanent seat of justice in said county, and shall purchase or may receive by donation, for the use of said county, a tract of land consisting of not less than twenty-five acres, to be conveyed to the chairman of the County Court and his successors in office, upon which they shall lay off a town, the name of which shall be determined by themselves, in which the public court house and jail of said county shall be erected; and after the completion of the same, the courts of said county shall be held, and the clerks' and register's offices shall be kept in said town.

Court shall appoint commissioners to select a place for C. H. to lay off a town, &c.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the commissioners so appointed as aforesaid, after laying off the lots of the town aforesaid, and designating such as shall be retained for public uses, shall expose the residue to sale at public auction, upon a credit of one and two years, and shall take bonds with security for the purchase money, payable to the chairman of the County Court, and his successors in office; and the said chairman shall execute titles therefor, upon the payment of Court may levy tax.

the purchase money, which shall go into the County Treasury; and the said Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions may levy taxes for all public uses, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as the like courts in other counties.

Imprisonment of criminals.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That all persons who may be liable to imprisonment under any process, either civil or criminal, in said county, before the completion of the public jail therein, may be committed to the jail of any adjoining county, in like manner as when a jail has been destroyed by accident.

Authority of courts and transfer of suits.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions established by this act, and the Superior Courts of Law and Equity which may be hereafter provided for said county, shall have the like powers, authorities and jurisdictions, as the same courts possess and exercise in other counties; and all suits now depending in any of the courts of Rowan county, wherein the citizens of Davie are both plaintiffs and defendants, and all indictments against them or any of them, shall be transferred to the court having jurisdiction thereof in the county of Davie, in the manner now provided for transferring suits from one county to another.

Offences to continue under jurisdiction of Rowan Superior Court.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That all criminal offences which may be committed in the county of Davie, which are cognizable only in the Superior Court of law, shall be and continue under the jurisdiction of the Superior Court of law of the county of Rowan, until a Superior Court of law shall be created for the county of Davie.

Collections
by sheriff.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed, as to prohibit the sheriff of Rowan county from collecting such sum or sums of money as are due or may become due on any judgment before the first Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions for said county of Davie.

Representation of counties.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That the counties of Rowan and Davie shall continue to be represented in the General Assembly as one county, and in the name of the county of Rowan, until a future Legislature shall otherwise provide and direct: an election shall be held, for members of both Houses of the General Assembly and of Congress, by the sheriff or other returning officers of Rowan county, in all the territory heretofore comprehended in the limits of said county, at the times and places, and under the same rules; regulations and restrictions as have been appointed or may hereafter be appointed by law; and the certificate of said sheriff or other returning officer, to the result of said election or elections, shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if this act had never been passed.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That provided nothing in this act shall be so construed, as to prevent the sheriff of Rowan county from collecting arrears of taxes in the same manner as he could have done previous to the division of the county: Provided nevertheless, that the sheriff of Rowan shall not collect any taxes in the county of Davie, or of the citizens of said county, imposed by the County Court of Rowan, and which are collectable in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; but that the same may be collected by the sheriff of Davie county to the use of said county.

risdiction, and wherein both plaintiff and defendant are citizens of Yadkin county, or wherein the citizens of Yadkin county are defendants, and all indictments and criminal proceedings against the citizens of Yadkin county, which shall be pending in the Superior Court of Surry county, and which are cognizable in the Superior Courts of this State, shall be transferred to the first Superior Court of Law and Equity to be held for the county of Yadkin, commencing on the tenth Monday after the fourth Monday in September, 1851, in the same manner as is now prescribed by law for transferring suits from one county to another.

Jurisdiction of criminal cases.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, That until the time of holding of the first Superior Court of Law and Equity as provided for in this act, in the county of Yadkin, the Superior Court of Surry county shall have jurisdiction of all criminal offences, cognizable in the Superior Courts of this State, which shall be committed in said county of Yadkin; and in all such cases, it shall be the duty of the justices of the peace of Yadkin county, when they give judgments against the defendants, in any State warrant for offences aforesaid, to bind over defendants and witnesses, and make their returns to the Superior Court of Surry as they were heretofore bound to do.

Imprisonment.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, That all persons who may be liable to imprisonment under process, either civil or criminal in Yadkin county, before the completion of the jail therein, shall be committed to the jail of Surry county.

Collections.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to prohibit the sheriff of Surry county, as aforesaid, from collecting such sum or sums of money as are due or may become due on any judgment where the execution shall come to his hands before the first term of the court of pleas and quarter sessions for Yadkin county, nor shall it be construed so as to prevent him from collecting any executions issuing from the Superior Court of Surry county and returnable to the same.

Sec. 13. Be it further enacted, That nothing in this act is to be construed so as to prevent the sheriff, as aforesaid, of Surry county, from collecting all arrears of taxes and all public dues and taxes collectable in the year 1851, in the same manner he could have done previous to the erection of the new county of Yadkin, both in the counties of Surry and Yadkin.

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, That the county of Yadkin shall continue to be represented in the next General Assembly of this State, in the name of Surry, as heretofore; and the election for the members of the General Assembly, Members of Congress, Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and Governor of the State, shall be held by the sheriff of the county of Surry, under the same rules and restrictions as hitherto; and the court of pleas and quarter sessions for the county of Surry is hereby authorized and required to appoint inspectors for holding elections for the Members of the General Assembly, Members of Congress, Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and Governor as heretofore: Provided, That all other elections shall be held in the county of Yadkin in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as are now provided for holding elections in this State in other counties.

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, That in the distribution of the nett annual income of the Literary Fund, the Literary Board shall pay over, as heretofore, to the chairman of the Board of superintendents of the county of Surry, and be distributed by them as heretofore until the next General Assembly.

Sec. 16. Be it further enacted, That the county of Yadkin shall compose a part of the sixth judicial circuit; and the Judges and Solicitor of said circuit shall attend said courts, under the same provisions and liabilities and regulations as apply to the other counties of said circuit.

Sec. 17. Be it further enacted, That the Judge who shall ride the Fall circuit, in the year, A. D., 1851, of the sixth Judicial circuit of this State, shall appoint a clerk of the Superior Court, a clerk and master in equity for said county of Yadkin.

Commissioners.

Sec. 18. Be it further enacted, That the county court of Yadkin, at its first session, a majority of the justices of the peace being present, shall appoint such number of commissioners as may be deemed necessary to contract for and superintend the building of a Court House and jail for said county of Yadkin.

Paupers.

Sec. 19. Be it further enacted, That all paupers now in the poor house of the county of Surry, that came from the county of Yadkin, be returned to the said county of Yadkin, on or before the first day of August, A. D., 1852, and that all moneys belonging to the poor fund of Surry county, be divided, at the same time the paupers are returned, among the several paupers, thus to be divided between the counties of Surry and Yadkin, pro rata.

CHAPTER 588.

AN ACT TO CHANGE THE LINE BETWEEN THE COUNTIES OF YADKIN AND FORSYTH AND TO AUTHORIZE SAID COUNTIES TO ERECT BRIDGES ACROSS THE YADKIN RIVER.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That all that portion of Yadkin County included within the boundaries hereinafter set out, shall be and hereby is annexed to and made a part of the county of Forsyth. Said boundaries are as follows: Beginning on the line between the counties of Yadkin and Forsyth at the northeast corner of Little Yadkin Township, on the Yadkin River; thence down said river a distance of one mile; thence a straight line to the point where the public road from Lewisville to West Bend, sometimes called the

Part of Yadkin to Forsyth.

Boundaries.

Nading's Ferry road, crosses the county line; thence northwardly with the county line to the beginning.

Construction of bridge authorized.

Location.

Apportionment of expense.

Condemnation of land.

Procedure for assessment of damages.

Right of appeal.

Assessment before
beginning work.

Proviso: power of abandonment.

Funds for work.

Special tax.

Rate.

SEC. 2. That the boards of commissioners for Forsyth and Yadkin Counties are authorized and empowered to construct and maintain one or more public bridges across the Yadkin River, at such places as may be mutually agreed upon by them, said bridge or bridges to be constructed and maintained by the said counties in the proportion that the taxable polls of each county bear to each other, or upon such other terms as may be agreed upon between said boards.

SEC. 3. That the boards of commissioners of each county are empowered to condemn, in their respective counties, the necessary lands for the purpose of constructing public roads, and approaches leading to such bridge or bridges, wherever such lands shall not be donated, or the price thereof can not be agreed upon. The board of each county shall have authority to go upon the land to make necessary surveys, and after five days notice to the landowner may make and enter an order of condemnation, which order shall not be subject to review. The board shall then have the election to proceed at once with the work of construction. Any landowner who shall consider himself damaged, may, within sixty days after the completion of the work on or through his land, apply to the clerk of the superior court, upon five days notice to the board, for an assessment of damages. The clerk shall appoint three disinterested freeholders to act as jurors. After five days notice said jurors shall go upon the land to assess the damages, and in determining the damages the jury shall take into consideration the benefits, if any, to the land and make their report to the clerk of the superior court, who shall render judgment thereon. Either party may appeal to the superior court. If the board shall elect to have the damages assessed, before proceeding to the work of construction, they shall make application to the clerk for assessment of damages, and the proceeding shall be as hereinbefore set out: Provided, that the board may at any time before final judgment, abandon the proposed work, in which event judgment shall be rendered, striking out the order of condemnation and awarding to the landowner costs and such damages as may have been sustained.

SEC. 4. That the boards of commissioners of said counties are authorized to defray the cost of said bridge or bridges and roads leading thereto, out of the general fund or road fund of their respective counties, as may not be required for other necessary purposes; or if such funds are insufficient, said boards are authorized to annually levy and collect a special tax in their respective counties not to exceed ten cents on the one hundred dollars worth of taxable property and thirty cents on the polls, until the cost of said bridges and roads shall be paid.

SEC. 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this the 4th day of March, 1911.
