- Off-Premise includes: Retail stores
- On-Premise includes: Hotels/Motels, Restaurants, Private Clubs

How to Apply for a Beer and Wine Business Permit

1. You must first obtain an application for ABC Retail Permit(s) from the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission (NCABC). To do so, visit their website at ABC.NC.gov/Permit/ApplyRetail.
2. Follow all of the instructions outlined in the web link above.
3. For County approval, the inspection/Zoning Compliance form must be completed first and submitted to Davie County Planning and Development Services.
4. Please note: For permits inside of municipal limits (Bermuda Run, Cooleemee, Mocksville) an official from that jurisdiction will sign the Local Government Opinion Form. The list of officials can be found at ABC.NC.gov/permits/opinion
5. For permits outside of municipal limits, the Local Government Opinion Form must be completed and submitted to the Davie County Manager's Office located at 123 South Main Street in Mocksville, NC. This form cannot be processed until the inspections/zoning compliance is cleared.
6. Fingerprints for the States criminal background check can be obtained at the Davie County Sheriff's Office.
7. All of the completed forms in the packet, along with the necessary filing fees, will need to be submitted to the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission (NCABC). Their mailing address is:
NCABC
4307 Mail Service Center
Raleigh NC 27699-4307
8. The ABC Commission will notify you of your approval or denial.
